Dublin, March 2.

YESTERDAY being Her Majesty's Birth-Day, the great Guns were fired at the Barracks, and answered by Vollies from the Regiments on Duty drawn out on Oxmantown Green. At Noon there was a numerous and splendid Appearance of the Nobility and other Persons of Distinction to compliment his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant at the Castle, where a Song on the Occasion was performed: And at Night there was a Play given by his Excellency for the Entertainment of the Ladies, after which there was a Ball.

Whitehall, March 4.

This Day their Excellencies Count Welderen and Monsr. Silvius, Ambassadours Extraordinary from the States General of the United Provinces, made their publick Entry. They were received at Greenwich by the Right Honourable the Earl of Radnor, and Sir Clement Cottrell Master of the Ceremonies, accompanied by six Gentlemen of His Majesty's Privy Chamber, and from thence brought by Water in His Majesty's Barges to the Tower. The Right Honourable the Lord Lonsdale Constable of the Tower, received their Excellencies at their Landing; the Standard was display'd, and the Guard being drawn out upon the Wharf, saluted their Excellencies as they passed by; when the Coaches were got off the Wharf, the Guns were fired: From whence they were conducted in His Majesty's State Coach covered with black Cloth, and drawn by six Horses, followed by a leading Coach of His Majesty's, for the Gentlemen of the Privy Chamber, and that by a Coach of the Queen's, as also a Coach of his Royal Highness the Duke's, and a Coach of her Royal Highness the Princess Royal, all drawn by six Horses each; these were followed by the Coach of the States General, drawn by eight Horses magnificently adorn'd with Silver, as was also the Harness; after which followed four more of their Excellencies Coaches, the two first drawn by eight Horses, the other by six, and all richly adorn'd; these were followed by Count La Lippe's Coach, as being a Gentleman of the Embassy: Before the State Coach, in which their Excellencies sat, their Footmen walk'd two and two, then their Pages in black Velvet with Silver Wastcoats two and two, on Horseback, followed by their Excellencies two Gentlemen of the Horse, on Horseback; a numerous Train of the Nobilities Coaches each drawn by six Horses closed the Procession. When their Excellencies were arrived at Somerset House, they were complimented on the Part of His Majesty by the Right Honourable the Lord Ashburnham, from the Queen by Mr. Vice-Chamberlain Smith, from his Royal Highness the Duke by the Honourable Charles Fielding, Esq; from her Royal Highness the Princess Royal by her Gentleman Usher Mr. Villiers, and from their Royal Highnesses the Princesses by Mr. Rambouillet their Gentleman Usher.

Whitehall, March 9.

Yesterday in the Afternoon Mr. Bineham the Messenger, arrived from Spain with the Original Act for the Execution of the Preliminaries signed at Madrid the 6th of March N. S. by the Ministers of the Emperour, England, France, Spain and the States General; so that all the Difficulties which have hitherto retarded the Opening of the Congress are now entirely removed.

Navy Office, March 8. 1727.
